NEWS NOTES.

Jacob D. Riley, president of the First National Bank of Mayeville, died suddenly.

Frank Scelling slashed the throat of Bascom Sharp, who tried to arrest him at Owingville.

Brussels has a church clock wound by atmospheric expansion induced by the heat of the sun.

The old Burbank factory in Henderson has been selected as the site for the new public building.

The bank of Little Rock and the Little Rock Trust Company, at Little Rock, Ark., suspended payment.

A movement has been inaugurated to buy President John Mitchell, of the Mine Workers, a home in Indianapolis.

The Sultan of Jolo is dead. He fell a victim to the epidemic of cholera now raging in the Philippine Islands.

Twelve men are dead and as many more injured as the result of a wreck on the Great Northern railroad near Leavenworth, Kas.

At Kittanning, Pa., Mrs. Carmato Litoama shot and killed Santo Marzio, who had followed her from Italy and assaulted her at her home.

The pearl fishery season this year in the Persian Gulf has been a most successful one, the divers having obtained more pearls than in the last two years.

The court of appeals overruled the motions for rehearing of the appeals in the Powers and Howard cases, and the accused will be tried again in the lower court.

Charles F. Kelly, former speaker of the House of Delegates in St. Louis, was convicted of perjury, and his punishment fixed at two years in the penitentiary.

A Chinese woman sued her employers for $10,000 damages because she became ill from the effects of vaccination, to which she submitted upon their urgent demands.

Mexican land owners find the scarcity of cheap labor a serious problem. To relieve the situation a steamship company will run vessels from Manzanillo direct to China and coolies will be imported.

Because she was afraid her husband would die and leave her penniless, Mrs. William Hanna, aged 78, brained him with a hammer, cut his throat and then her own throat with a butcher knife in Louisville.

The Marconi Company announces that it is making plans to establish its wireless system throughout the world. Communication between New York and San Francisco is predicted at no distant date.

A remarkable surgical operation was performed at St. Louis to save the life of Edward Spilker, who had attempted suicide by shooting himself in the left breast. An aperture was made at the wound and between pulsations the wound in the heart was closed with three stitches. The patient gives fair promise of recovery.

The fifth annual report of the State Prison Commission was made to Gov. Beckham. It shows that 1,740 convicts are under contract. Both prisons show a deficit, but these deficits are comparatively small when the cost of permanent improvements is deducted, and that at Eddyville is the lowest in the prison's history. There are 1,275 prisoners at Frankfort and 549 at Eddyville.

BLIND-FOLD.

Blindfold a woman and she loses all confidence in herself. Her step is slow, hesitating and uncertain. Her hands are raised to ward the imaginary blows which threaten her. When a sick woman seeks the means of health she is often like a woman blindfold. She has no confidence. She cannot tell what her effort will lead to. She turns now to this side and then to the other in uncertainty and doubt.

The sick woman who uses Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription may do so with absolute confidence. It invites open-eyed investigation. There need be no hesitation in following the hundreds of thousands of women who have found a perfect cure for womanly ills in the use of this medicine.

"Favorite Prescription" cures irregularity and dries weakening drains. It heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"With a heart full of gratitude to you for sending out over the land your wonderful medicine I send these few lines, hoping that some poor suffering woman will try Dr. Pierce's medicine," writes Mrs. Cora L. Root, of Greenspring, Pa., Washington Co., Maryland. "I had suffered severely from female weakness and had to be in bed a great deal of the time. Had headache, backache and pain in left side when lying down. I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and had not taken two bottles when I was able to be around again and do my work with but little pain. Can now eat anything and it never hurts me any more. Have taken seven bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and one of his Compound Extract of Smartweed and several vials of his Pleasant Pellets. Feeling better every day. My husband says I look better every day."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness and sick headache.

HUSTONVILLE.

Several ice houses were filled with fine ice from ponds last week.

A "flinch" club has been organized. Friday night is its meeting time.

Rev. G. W. Mills has had his salary increased and will continue with the Christian church here this year.

Sandy T. Carpenter and family, of Casey, have moved into the Peacock property and H. R. Camnitz and family into the Logan home.

Charley Bohoo shipped to Atlanta 10 days ago a car-load of extra mules, which he sold at satisfactory prices and Tuesday shipped another load.

Hon. B. B. King, of Moreland, has sold his stock of goods to his son, Tom, and son-in-law, Mr. Cox, and they have taken charge. The firm now is King & Cox.

Phil Sutterfield, for several months night operator at Moreland, has been promoted and given the post as day operator at Nicholasville. The young man deserved the lift.

George Diawiddle has bought a hardware store in Beattyville and will take possession at an early date. George's well-known integrity and business qualifications insure him success in his new field.

J. H. Hocker sold to Mackin & Bryan, of Lebanon, a sorrel gelding for $150. W. S. Drye & Co sold to Henry Garton, of Marion, a big mule for $135 and to Bright & Fox seven sugar mules at $145.

A troupe of 22 colored minstrels are billed for Alcorn's Opera House on the nights of the 4th and 5th of February. The first night for the whites, the second for the colored folks. An excellent brass band accompanies the show.

Dr. Alcorn, Mr. Timothy Hardin's physician, found a basket in Mr. Hardin's room containing about $2,000 in gold and $10,000 in notes of various parties to whom he had loaned money. The gold and notes were taken to bank for safe keeping.

Miss Willie Wigham, the handsome daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wigham, of Moreland, who was visiting relatives in Louisville, was married on Sunday to Mr. Leroy Arnold, of Danville. A telephone message to her parents was the first intimation of their marriage.

Several of our ice houses were filled last week from the ponds and lakes out in country, the Hanging Fork being too flush to freeze. This with the mint beds and other requisites hard by will enable us to pull through the hot season, regardless of the mumps, small-pox or the other plagues.

Christian college added 20 odd new pupils to its roll Monday. Misses Julia Stage and Kate Bogie have been added to the corps of teachers, making the above an educational institution second to only a few in the State. Our people like Dr. Fallis and realize in him a most excellent educator.

Taxation without representation is about the position we feel with regard to the I. J. Almost every cross roads has a correspondent and with nearly 150 subscribers here, and the largest town in the county, except your city, we voice the sentiment of a large majority of our subscribers here in asking for representation.

Miss Georgie Newbern, the efficient teacher of our city, whose reputation in her profession for that patient and painstaking ability that has caused her scholars such marked and rapid progress, has opened a private school of 20 odd pupils in the free school building here. A number of others who live some distance in the country will attend a month later. The school will be given a thorough training in vocal music and elocution semi-weekly to gether with other up-to-date methods and other advantageous features not taught in the West End.

Misses Frances and Neil Adams, of Danville, are visiting relatives here. Charles Murray, of Stonega, Va., is with G. P. Crow. Miss Lettie Johnson, of Danville, is with Miss Mary Carpenter. Miss Mamie Rawlings, of Danville, is the guest of Miss Susie Freye. A. B. C. Dinwiddie and Blain Dyre, of Bradfordsville, were here Sunday. W. S. Huffman and wife, of Camp Nelson, were here Sunday. Miss Helen Hocker has returned from a visit to Miss Mabel Drye at Lebanon. Mrs. Allen Burruss will return to Colorado Springs this week. Mrs. D. H. Skinner and Miss Belle Riffe are both ill. A. J. Adams is sick. D. C. Allen and L. M. Reid visited Lancaster friends Sunday.

Tried to Conceal It.

It's the old story of "murder will out" only in this case there's no crime. A woman feels run down, has backache or dyspepsia and thinks it's nothing and tries to hide it until she finally breaks down. Don't deceive yourself. Take Electric Bitters at once. It has a reputation for curing Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles and will revivify your whole system. The worst forms of those maladies will quickly yield to the curative power of Electric Bitters. Only 50c, and guaranteed by all druggists.

To Stockholders Of Crab Orchard Fair.

Under the present management the fair was a success, but it could have been more of one with the following changes:

One entrance to fair grounds, instead of two; by having two entrances from 500 to 1,000 persons got in without paying during the three days fair.

One man each to sell and take up tickets instead of seven as you had last year at $2 and over per day, each.

Have a good man to take up tickets on a merry-go-round instead of boys as you did have at a big price to each one and have a four days fair with a good free show each day, and no charge for ladies and children on first day.

Have excursion trains to run from Richmond, Lebanon and Corbin and all stations between those places at a very low price, so people who attend the fair can go each evening, as lodging was at a premium last year during the fair and hundreds were kept away on account of not finding hotel accommodations.

Give no complimentary tickets or passes to any one but editors of newspapers, and all officers of fair pay as others do, as free family tickets to officers last year hurt the fair.

Have streets of Crab Orchard and road to fair grounds sprinkled well each day, should it be needed.

You should get your catalogues and advertising matter out sooner than you did last year.

I believe in changing officers each year as it puts new life into it, and suggest the following officers for this year, viz: J. E. Lynn, Stanford, president; Jno. W. Holmes, Crab Orchard, vice president; J. R. Edmiston, Crab Orchard, treasurer; L. S. Elder, secretary. Directors: A. E. Hundley, Danville, Jas. F. Cummins, Stanford, Ed. H. Walker, Garrard county, F. L. Thompson, Mt. Vernon, Clarence Woods, Richmond, J. S. Owsley, Jr., Stanford, J. W. Guest, Crab Orchard, R. H. Bronaugh, Crab Orchard, J. R. Edmiston, Crab Orchard, A. W. Bachman, Crab Orchard, W. A. Brooks, Crab Orchard, Henry Campbell, Crab Orchard.

A STOCK HOLDER.

OTTENHEIM.

The Pine Grove church has called Eld. John Long to preach this year.

Ottenheim can boast of three fine churches; the Reform, Lutheran and Catholic.

J. Landgraf, agent for the Lincoln Land Company, has moved to his new home near Chas. Trub's.

Charles Esslin is running his saw-mill for all it is worth in order to fill the bills he has on hand.

If Bishop McClosky carries out his program that he has on hand, it will be a boom for Ottenheim.

The Germans as a rule are the kindest and best people in the world, but some of the men are so ugly they would look a wagon wheel if they looked straight at it.

We rejoiced when we noticed in your last issue that an effort was being made to establish a voting precinct at Ottenheim. It makes us believe that we are not forsaken, but somebody cares for us after all.

G. D. Boone, the East End financier, is a frequent visitor to our German colony and is known among them as "Hon. est George," and he is a great help to the poor people for he will buy anything from a razor back hog to a thoroughbred trotting horse, and he pays the people liberally for what he buys.

Dislocated Her Shoulder.

Mrs. Johanna Soderholm, of Fergus Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much.

Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep, which she had not done for several days. The son was much pleased with the relief it gave his mother and he has since recommended it to many others. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

South Carolina has a splendid opportunity to turn a new page in the vindication of her good name and the law by meeting out to Tillman the full penalty for his crime. If the slayer of Gonzales had been a Negro, he would have been hanged without the formality of a trial.—Courier Journal.

"The nicest and pleasantest medicine I have used for indigestion and constipation is Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets," says Melard F. Craig, of Middlegrove, N. Y. "They work like a charm and do not gripe or have any unpleasant effect." For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

Owensboro got the fair, but she and everybody else have been wondering ever since what she will do with it. It is entirely too big a thing for her class, says the Lexington Democrat.

LANCASTER.

L. L. Jenkins sold his tobacco at 74c. F. Leavell sold 130 bushels of hemp seed at $3.

Hemp is said to have been injured by the bad weather.

The two boards have re-elected their old boards of officers and directors.

The Garrard County Medical Society will hold its monthly meeting this evening.

Thomas McMillan is making a second story addition to his blacksmith shop.

Shelby Tribble has secured a position with a Somerset paper and left Thursday for Pulaski's capital.

Miss Elizabeth Brown went to Lexington as one of the State Executive Christian Endeavor committee.

Judge J. S. Robinson sold a Jersey cow for $25 to the Stanford dairy. J. C. Fox sold a lot of mules to a Southern trader at $110.

Miss Dove Harris has returned from Lexington, where she attended the marriage of her niece, Miss Jennie Embry, to Enoch Grennan.

Misses Mary and Bertha Burnside entertained Tuesday evening in honor of Misses Frances Fogg, of Frankfort, and Florence Burnside, of Point Leavel.

John Smith, of Upper Garrard, and Mr. Blair, of Harlan, have bought the Rice Woods farm from J. C. Napier. Mr. Smith gets 75 acres lying next to his own place.

M. F. Rout, a popular farmer of Garrard, has been appointed one of the committee to raise the $100,000 fund for the Kentucky exhibit at the Louisiana Purchase World's Fair at St. Louis.

A novel entertainment will be given Friday evening by the Christian Endeavor Society at the Odd Fellows' Hall, known as a "Shadow Sale." Remember refreshments will be served free.

Rev. C. M. Chumbley made arrangements while attending a conference of preachers in Louisville to do some evangelistic work in Harlan county and will probably leave for that section in the next fortnight.

The following deaths have occurred in the county within the last few days: Mr. Woodson Scott, of Mt. Hebron, age 73; Mrs. Cormley, an aged woman of the Lowell vicinity, and Mrs. Sherman Saunders, of Paint Lick, who leaves a husband and six children.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Campbell have lately entertained the following relatives, who were also visitors at the recent Alexander Campbell golden wedding at Lexington: Miss Maude McGery, Adelaide, Australia; Mrs. Archibald Campbell, San Francisco, Cal.; Mrs. E. Gray, Steubenville, Ohio; Mrs. B. C. Hagaman, Lexington.

Mrs. Chumbley left for Louisville for a visit to relatives en route to her home in Virginia. Misses Anna and Mary Noel, of Danville, attended the Woods-Noel nuptials. Miss Frances Fogg, of Frankfort, is the guest of Miss Mary Landram Burnside. Miss Mattie Thompson expects to make a visit to Stanford. Prof. Jno. M. Young, of Cornell University has been visiting his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Young, of Paint Lick. Miss Lula McClure, of Crab Orchard, has been the guest of Miss Mamie Bastin. W. H. Compton, of Montgomery county, Mo., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Conn. Dr. A. S. Price, who has somewhat recuperated, returns to-day to Stanford. Miss Alleen Hudson, of Danville, is visiting Miss Elizabeth Hudson. M. D. Hughes has returned from Cincinnati. Mr. Cyrus Eason leaves shortly for a recuperation trip South. Mrs. Arnold, of Madison, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Johnson. Dr. Ramsey and family have gone South for the remainder of the winter.

HUBBLE.

Jas. McKechnie sold a pair of work mules to D. N. Prewitt for $240.

Dr. Hickie will leave for Louisville to attend the medical school, for his last session, in a few days.

Miss Ila Rankin is teaching her 2nd term of school here, which will make a 10 months term for her here.

T. C. Rankin is back from the South looking good and reports a good trade. A. C. Carman and Joe Ross are visiting in Lexington.

If we are not mistaken in the way the wind is blowing, the matrimonial fever will strike here in a week or 10 days, and may prove fatal.

The supervisors are raising some of the land in this community. We hope that the tax list may be augmented till we can have some to spend on our turnpike roads.

D. G. Spoonamore sold his hay in the stack for 62c to O. J. Thurman, of Danville. R. L. Hubble is back from the South after selling three loads of mules there for a good price.

Domestic Troubles.

It is exceptional to find a family where there are no domestic ruptures occasionally, but these can be lessened by having Dr. King's New Life Pills around. Much trouble they save by their great work in Stomach and Liver troubles. They not only relieve you, but cure. 25c, at all drug stores.

Who Shall Fill It?

There should be but one question to consider in deciding where to take your Prescriptions, and that is: Where are the best Drugs and most accurate compounding to be had? No motive or influence should be allowed to weigh against it. When you do this we shall expect to serve you. When we fill your prescription every drug that enters into it has the exact potency the physician desires. Our charges are just as satisfactory as our service.
